

Beginning Beekeeping

Surry County Bee School 2015

Surry County Beekeepers will be presenting a Bee School for beginning beekeepers. Classes will include:

- ▶ Introduction to Beekeeping
- ▶ The colony, organization, and life cycle of the honeybee
- ▶ Equipment needed to get started
- ▶ How to assemble equipment
- ▶ Seasonal hive management of the colonies
- ▶ Pests and diseases of the bees
- ▶ Harvesting and processing honey and other hive products
- ▶ A field day to work with the bees

When: Saturday, February 28th, 9 am - 1 pm
Saturday, March 7th, 9 am - 1 pm
Monday, March 9th, 7 pm - 9 pm
Field day to be announced

Where: Farm Bureau downstairs meeting room
112 White St, Dobson, NC 27017

Cost: $35/individual includes book "First Lessons in Beekeeping" by Keith Delaplane and classroom instructions; additional family member (without book) $15.00; children 16 and younger may attend for free with a registered adult. Additional books $10.00 each if available. Refreshments provided.

Students joining Surry County Beekeepers may enter drawing for a nuc of local bees.

For reservations, please call Surry County Extension Office at 336-401-8025.

SPONSORED BY SURRY COUNTY BEEKEEPERS ASSOCIATION
Check for updates at <http://surrybeekeepers.org>